Daddy D Productions started as a group of friends with a simple idea—good music, good friends, good food and good clean humor! For inspiration, they looked to the great variety shows of years past, added a big helping of Daddy D energy and came up with a winning combination! This year's Daddy D Production brings you a musical celebration of America and its music. From the tunes that moved a nation through war to smash hits from a gang of Jersey Boys, there is something for everyone! This event also includes the 15th Anniversary Fine Arts Celebration Fundraiser & Raffle and a chance to win numerous great prizes.

THE YOUNG IRELANDERS

They have toured as lead performers with Riverdance and Michael Flatley's Lord of the Dance, been soloists on PBS Specials, shared the stage with Bono, and have collaborated with Ronnie Wood (Rolling Stones) and Sting (The Police). Don't miss this opportunity to experience what Ireland's traditions of music, song, and dance look like and sound like!

ADAM TRENT: THE FUTURIST

Thursday • April 6, 2017 • 7:00 PM
Falls Area Performing Arts Center
Adults $30/Students $15

Broadway and television star Adam Trent exemplifies a new generation of magician and is one of the most in-demand illusionists working today. Frequently described as "Justin Timberlake meets David Copperfield," his audience interactive performances are part magic, part concert, and part stand-up comedy, with a fast paced variety. Approaching his craftiness with a tongue-in-cheek attitude allows him to connect with people immediately and he promises that you will leave his show feeling differently than you ever expected to feel after a magic show. In addition to his regular television show appearances, he has a staggering schedule with over 300 live show appearances each year. A must-see performance for the entire family!

AN EVENING WITH GEORGE WINSTON

Saturday • April 29, 2017 • 7:00 PM
Falls Area Performing Arts Center
$40 per person

George Winston grew up mainly in Montana, and also spent his later formative years in Mississippi and Florida. His favorite music was instrumental rock and instrumental R&B. Inspired by R&B, jazz, blues and rock (the Doors), George began playing organ in 1967. In 1971 he switched to the acoustic piano after hearing recordings from the '20s and '30s by legendary stride pianists Thomas "Fats" Waller and Teddy Wilson. While working on stride piano, he also came up with his style of melodic instrumental music on solo piano, called folk piano. Since 1972, George has released 13 solo piano albums. His latest album is Spring Carousel—a Cancer Research Benefit EP, released in 2016.

There will be a special Steinway presentation by Neva Hodge-Lemorande and Ursula Rathie at 6:30 p.m.
